

Alternative Dispute Resolution

In business, conflict is unavoidable. Litigation is complex, expensive, protracted, and public; it is also avoidable. Haley Guiliano works with clients to find ways to achieve their business goals without the need for litigation. We have represented clients in a variety of negotiations, arbitrations and mediations to successfully resolve their conflicts and achieve the goals without the need to litigation.