James Haley Co-Authors 2nd Edition of the Global Law & Business

James F. Haley, Jr. co-authored the U.S. chapter of International Patent Litigation: Developing an Effective Strategy, Second Edition, Global Law and Business (2018). Haley praises the publication stating: "The second edition of International Patent Litigation is an essential resource for those practising patent litigation in the global arena. Its chapters provide concise descriptions of patent litigation strategies and procedures in twenty countries. Their authors' insights provide real-world advice on how to proceed with patent litigation in the various jurisdictions." Order Your Copy Here!

At the February 21st Launch Party at Kilburn & Strode LLP offices in London, Jim joined a panel of other authors and the Rt. Hon. Professor Sir Robin Jacob to discuss "Hot Topics" in various jurisdiction. Jim Haley discussed the written description holding in Amgen Inc v. Sanofi, 872 F.3d 1367 (Fed. Cir. 2017) and its ramifications on the scope of claims directed to antibody, and potentially other, genera.
