HG Law & Three of its Partners Ranked Among the IAM Patent 1000 (2019)

Haley Guiliano LLP was ranked among the IAM Patent 1000 (2019), with three of the firm's partners also being ranked individually. Haley Guiliano, James F. Haley, Jr. and Joseph M. Guiliano were ranked in United States: New York. And, Peter Hale was ranked in the European Patent Office United Kingdom: England. Read more here.

"Haley Guiliano was founded by the partners in charge of Ropes & Gray's IP rights management practice and opened for business in August 2017. Scoring high marks for its commercial approach to patent protection and portfolio development, it now makes its debut in the IAM Patent 1000. James Haley takes the lead on the dynamic set's life sciences activities – he prosecutes for AbbVie, oversees global filing for Agene Bio and serves as lead counsel in inter partes reviews for other market leaders.

"Jim has been representing the biotech industry from basically the beginning of its existence. His breadth and depth of experience is unparalleled and he has profound knowledge about what can be patented not only in the United States but also by the EPO and other leading patent offices in the world."

Renowned as a fabulous life sciences strategist globally, he was responsible for creating the hybridisation language for nucleic acid sequence claims and the encoded proteins – before mass sequencing became available this had a significant impact on international patenting policy. Putting quality first on the high-tech side of the practice is Joseph Guiliano."
