Olivia joined Haley Guiliano LLP in June 2022 after graduating from UC Davis with degrees in Physics and Philosophy. She has coursework spanning a wide breadth, from graduate-level philosophy of science and cosmology to electronics and circuits. Olivia worked as a Research Assistant at the UC Davis Yin Lab where she assisted in cosmochemistry research in the clean lab as well as via welding. She also worked for Student Housing and Dining Services as a Sustainability Coordinator, collecting data on waste production and educating students and staff on sustainable best practices. In her free time, she enjoys crocheting, reading, and thrifting one-of-a-kind items.
