

Opinions

Haley Guiliano helps clients navigate risk on a regular basis. At times, it becomes wise or necessary to document our legal opinions regarding certain risks.

We draft formal opinions of counsel on issues related to intellectual property. This includes opinions analyzing the validity or enforceability of patents, as well as whether infringement of patent or other third party intellectual property rights is taking place.