Prashant Praveen joined Haley Guiliano in 2018 as an associate in the intellectual property group. Prashant's practice focuses primarily on preparation and prosecution of patent applications and patent portfolio management, both in the US and abroad. Prashant has extensive experience conducting infringement, invalidity, and freedom to operate analyses, and he also has experience in post-grant proceedings before the Patent Trial and Appeal Board. Prashant is also skilled at performing various IP-related due diligence projects and has assisted transactions attorneys on intellectual property issues.

Prashant has experience in a multitude of technologies which include consumer electronics, wireless networks, digital imaging devices, software and other network-based technologies, electrical and medical devices, aerospace and automotive components, audio and video processing, and display devices.

Prior to joining Haley Guiliano, Prashant was a patent attorney in the Intellectual Property Group of a national law firm where he worked with clients and inventors from large corporations, start-up companies, and universities on a broad range of intellectual property issues. Prashant was also involved in pro bono work and has represented individuals seeking asylum in immigration proceedings.

Outside of work, Prashant is an avid baseball fan (Go Cubs!) and enjoys downhill skiing.
